

CEA-Retired Committees

Membership Committee

Develops and carries out plans for recruitment of potential members. Participates at CEA retirement workshops. Promotes CEA-Retired membership at CEA functions.

Legislative/Benefits Committee

Works in conjunction with CEA Legislative Committee to develop legislative agenda. Participates in CEA-Retired lobby activities and other related legislative activities.

Finance Committee

Develops a proposed budget based on CEA adopted budget. Presents proposed budget to CEA-Retired Advisory Council in the spring. Finance members on Advisory Council provide a general fiscal oversight.

Constitution Committee

Annually reviews the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association. Reviews all actions of CEA-Retired meetings for possible impact on the Constitution and Bylaws. Present to the CEA-R Advisory Council all proposed changes. Presents all proposed changes to the Constitution and Bylaws at the Annual Meetings for action.

Election Committee

Annually reviews all CEA-Retired election procedures and policies and makes recommendations to the Advisory Council. Oversees elections at the annual meeting and verifies results. Holds any hearings on violations and challenges.

Eligibility:

All members shall be members of CEA-Retired in good standing.

No member of this committee shall:

Hold an official position in a campaign.

Be a candidate for any office subject to the election at the CEA-Retired Annual Meeting.

Planning Committee

Plans and evaluates the Annual and General meetings.

Special Services Committee

Works with CEA Special Services and NEA Member Benefits. Informs CEA-Retired members of CEA/NEA special services. Provides information for CEA-Retired newsletter and Web site. Investigates new services for CEA-Retired members.

Newsletter/Communications Committee

Organizes, plans, and edits the CEA-Retired newsletter, The Beacon, for publication. Communicates with officers, Advisory Council members, and committee chairs to ensure the appropriate content of the newsletter.

